

WELCOME TO EMPLOYERS OVERLOAD (EO)

EO was established in 1947 and our philosophy is "helping people succeed". Our primary service is providing staffing services to hundreds of local companies. We pay our employees on a weekly basis and never charge a fee.

We look forward to helping you succeed and require the following from all applicants to ensure a safe, productive and successful relationship for our employees and customers.

Some requirements prior to placement on assignment:

- Present to EO proper identification to complete the U.S. Department of Justice Employment Eligibility Verification Form (I-9)
- Present to EO a copy of your Social Security card for payroll/W-4 purposes (We can help you apply for a new card if you do not have one or you lost your card).
- Verifiable work experience within the past 12 months or verifiable enrollment in a school or military within the past 12 months and/or unique specific skills and capabilities for which we are currently accepting applications.
- Individuals with convictions or any release from prison in the past 7 years must disclose this information during the application process and will be further screened by EO's Risk Manager to assess whether they can be placed on assignment.
- Reasonable means for us to contact you.
- Reliable transportation.
- Sign a statement that allows us to perform drug screening as required.
- Read, understand and follow the policies presented in our Welcome Booklet.
